Kanye's announcement is a great reminder that men look at job descriptions and think—"hey, I'm not remotely qualified, but I think I could do that." Apply for all the jobs, women.

Hey #bootcamp grads,

Don't be bootcamp grads! I get a lot of messages from people, "I'm a bootcamp grad ...". You're not a bootcamp grad, you're a #softwareengineer or aspiring to be a software engineer. A bootcamp is simply where your journey started.

When you start a conversation with "I'm a bootcamp grad", I feel like you're warning me or in some way trying to set expectations.

DON'T SELL YOURSELF SHORT.

You are a software engineer (say it with me, you are a software engineer) looking for an entry level software engineering position NOT a bootcamp grad hoping to get into #technology.

You are your own advocate
